- 9.1. The Club shall maintain a minimum number of 10 Members.
- 9.2. Membership is only open to students who:
 - 9.2.1. Are members of OUSA.
- 9.3. Gender, age, disability, race, culture, religious background and sexual orientation will not inhibit the ability for individuals to become a Member.
- 9.4. Outside of 9.3 the Club may impose pre-requisites or conditions on Club Membership that have been resolved by ordinary resolution at an AGM.
- 9.5. An individual becomes a Member when they have:
 - 9.5.1. met any Member pre-requisites;
 - 9.5.2. completed an application for membership given in writing, either on paper or online to the Club Committee; and
 - 9.5.3. paid the membership fee, if applicable.
- 9.6. The Club may decline an application for membership when:

- 9.6.1. the requirements of clause 9.4 are not met; or
- 9.6.2. for any other reason that does not contravene this Constitution or OUSA rules.
- 9.7. Membership does not result in any Member having ownership rights to Club funds, equipment or property.
- 9.8. All Members shall promote the interests and purpose of the Club and must not bring the Club or OUSA into disrepute.

10. Fees

- 10.1. A Member is only entitled to exercise the rights of membership if all membership fees and any other outstanding fees have been paid to the Club by the due date.
- 10.2. The annual membership fee will be set by special resolution at a General Meeting.
- 10.3. Any member of the club who does not pay any required membership fee within one calendar month of joining shall not be permitted to exercise the privileges of membership until the membership is paid.
- 10.4. If such arrears are not paid within two months of the due date, the Executive may terminate the Member's membership (without being required to give prior notice to that Member).
- 10.5. The Executive may decide what access or use Members have to any facilities or equipment the Club own, including any conditions of and fees for such access or use.

11. Ceasing to become a member

- 11.1. A Member ceases membership:
 - 11.1.1. by providing notice of resignation to the Secretary; or
 - 11.1.2. upon termination of membership following a dispute resolution process in accordance with clause 18.
- 11.2. A Member who resigns or whose membership is terminated under this constitution:
 - 11.2.1. remains liable to pay any outstanding fees and debts;
 - 11.2.2. shall return to the Club any equipment or property provided to Members by the Club; and
 - 11.2.3. shall cease to be entitled to any of the rights of a Member.

- 14.11. All General Meetings will be chaired by the President. If the President is absent, they shall appoint another Executive Member to chair that meeting.
- 14.12. The chairperson may:
 - 14.12.1. facilitate the Meeting agenda and business;
 - 14.12.2. direct that any person not entitled to be present at the Meeting, obstructing meeting business, behaving disorderly or threatening, or failing to abide by the directions of the chairperson be removed from the Meeting;
 - 14.12.3. In the absence of a quorum or in the case of an emergency, adjourn the Meeting or declare it closed;
- 14.13. The chairperson of a General Meeting will have a casting vote in the case of equal votes on a motion.

THE COMMITTEE

15. Election of Executive Members

- 15.1. Executive Members shall be elected during the AGM. However, if a vacancy arises between AGMs, that vacancy shall be filled through an SGM election.
- 15.2. Votes shall be cast in such a manner as the chairperson determines. Voting must be fair, ethical, and unprejudiced towards any candidate.
- 15.3. In the event of a vote being tied, the tie shall be resolved by the chairperson, provided they are not a candidate in the vote. If they are, the tie shall be resolved by the most senior Executive Member who is not a candidate in the vote.
- 15.4. The President shall appoint a non-Member or Member not nominated for a Executive to act as a scrutineer for the counting of the votes and destruction of any voting papers.

16. The Executive

- 16.1. The Club shall be governed by the Executive, which may exercise all the powers of the Society, except those that must be exercised at General Meetings of the Society.
- 16.2. At all times each Executive Member shall:
 - 16.2.1. act in accordance with the Club's Purpose and this constitution;
 - 16.2.2. uphold their obligations to OUSA, as detailed in the OUSA rules;
 - 16.2.3. act in good faith and in the best interests of the Club; and
 - 16.2.4. prioritise Member safety and wellbeing;
- 16.3. Executive Members must be Members of the Club.
- 16.4. Executive Members may be held personally liable for any damages incurred by the Club.
- 16.5. The Executive must consist of at least 66% Students.
- 16.6. The Executive shall hold Executive meetings at least once monthly at such times and places and in such a manner as it may determine.
- 16.7. The quorum for Executive meetings is half of the Executive.
- 16.8. The President will chair Executive meetings. In their absence, they shall elect another Executive Member to chair that meeting.
- 16.9. The term of office for all Executive Members shall start from their election at either an AGM or SGM to the end of the next AGM. Note: it's expected that outgoing Executive Members will facilitate a hand over period with incoming Executive Members.
- 16.10. Where a complaint is made about the actions or inaction of an Executive Member, the OUSA Resolution (and Complaints) process will be followed.
- 16.11. A Executive Member shall be deemed to have ceased to be an Executive Member if that person ceases to be a Member or provides written resignation of their Executive Role to the Secretary.
- 16.12. After ceasing Executive Membership the outgoing Executive Member will have 14 clear days to deliver to the Secretary all paperwork and other property of the Club held by such former Executive Member. If it's the Secretary who is departing paperwork and property will go to the president.

- 17.1. Positions on the Executive include the President, Secretary, Treasurer, Vice President, Events officer, Media & Communications officer, and Sponsorship officer.
- 17.2. The Club will provide the Executive with descriptions of their roles.

OTHER MATTERS

18. Dispute Resolution

- 18.1. Should a grievance or an issue arise, the Executive and/or Members will follow the OUSA Resolution (and Complaints) Policy.
- 18.2. The OUSA Resolution (and Complaints) Policy:
 - 18.2.1. provides guidance to resolve conflict and grievance internally;
 - 18.2.2. establishes thresholds where external intervention is advised or required; and
 - 18.2.3. clarifies the process OUSA recommends and advises on various support services available.
- 18.3. Failing resolution through the OUSA Resolution (and Complaints) Policy, the Club reserves the right to reprimand Club Members including but not limited to restrictions to membership benefits, membership suspension, or membership termination. This shall be done by passing a special resolution at a GM and advising the member.
- 18.4. A reprimanded Club Member reserves the right of review through OUSA as described in the OUSA Resolution (and Complaints) Policy.

19. Dissolution and Disaffiliation

- 19.1. The Secretary shall give notice to all Members of a proposed dissolution or disaffiliation.
- 19.2. Club Members will have 14 days to refute the proposal by requesting an SGM and passing a special resolution not to dissolve or disaffiliate.
- 19.3. The Club may dissolve or disaffiliate from OUSA by notifying OUSA in writing with reasons behind dissolution or disaffiliation, and evidence that the proposal was notified to Members at least 14 days prior.
- 19.4. OUSA will deem the Club dissolved if the Executive cannot be contacted for a period of six months or more (using all practical means).
- 19.5. Upon dissolution or disaffiliation, all remaining Club funds and property will be retained in the Club's bank account, which can be accessed by the Treasurer on dissolution. If in 3 years' time a similar club has not affiliated to the OUSA, the funds and property will be awarded to a charity or organisation that aligns with the values of the Club. The charity or organisation will be determined by a majority during the dissolution period.

- 19.6. In the event of dissolution, no Club funds or property will ever be transferred or awarded to Club Members.

20. Amendments

- 20.1. The Club may amend this constitution at an AGM or SGM by special resolution.
- 20.2. A resolution altering, adding to, or rescinding this Constitution must be passed by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting.
- 20.3. Notice of proposed amendments must be given at least 3 days before any General Meeting at which the meeting is proposed, unless there is a special resolution to allow consideration of the amendment.
- 20.4. OUSA has the power to amend this constitution, with the approval of the Executive.
