Location:	OUSA, University of Otago, Dunedin
Organisation:

OUSA provides a diverse range of services to its 20,000 student members at the University of Otago. An autonomous body with registered charity status and independence from the University, OUSA offers activities and support to students including:

- A confidential support and welfare advice service, representation and advocacy
- Numerous recreation clubs and societies and the facilities to support these
- A varied events programme
- A student radio station (Radio One)
- An award-winning student magazine (Critic).

The OUSA Executive (the elected student members and governors of the Association) run campaigns and represents student views to the University and other external bodies.

OUSA's core responsibility is to engage its student members through services, events, representation and communication by way of a relevant, responsible, inclusive and engaging approach.

Capping Show is the longest running student revue show on earth, with 130 years of history at Otago University. Capping Show is produced by OUSA, and is primarily a student-run and student-led project. Taking part in Capping Show allows emerging performers and theatre workers the opportunity to express their creative vision in a professional theatrical context, with the financial and administrative support of OUSA.

Position purpose:

As Wardrobe Manager, you'll organize, create, or source costumes for the Capping Show, ensuring they meet the directors' creative vision and are of a high standard for the stage. You'll maintain these costumes throughout the production, contributing to the overall quality and cohesiveness of the show.
